Full job description

Due to our industry success and client demand we are currently looking for people just like you who have excelled in the hospitality industry but are looking for a change.

Why Hospitality experience?

We are a people business and are looking for those with people experience. If you have experience in a fast-paced social environment - dealing with customers face to face, we know that you will excel with us.

Our ideal employee for this role has the following.

- Minimum of 1+ year experience in a customer-oriented role
- A proven record for developing strong customer relationships.
- A friendly outgoing nature with the ability to develop long-term relationships.
- Confident, self-motivated and highly autonomous.
- The ability to think strategically.
- Possess outstanding verbal communication skills.
- Be well presented.
- Experience working towards KPIs.

What do we offer?

- Represent community based brands people know and love.
- Work at event and retail promotions all around Brisbane.
- No more unsociable hours or limited shifts, as work is available every day of the week during business hours.
- Paid product and personal development training with personalised mentoring.
- Career development, leaders, trainers and managers needed as we grow.
