Full job description

Your new company

Friendly 3 Partner Practice located in the CBD is seeking a Senior Accountant to work directly with 2 of the Partners. They have an excellent reputation for delivering quality service to a diverse client base of small and medium sized businesses scattered across Adelaide.

Your new role

The Partners require a focused senior accountant to assist them with the compliance, business services and financial accounting work. You will be dealing directly with the clients and providing high level service across each of these divisions. Some SMSF work will also be part of the role.

What you'll need to succeed

Clients of this Practice have a wonderful friendly relationship with the Firm and the incoming accountant will be someone who can continue to provide the highest level of compliance services and business advice. Excellent communication ability is essential.

This exceptional opportunity will suit someone who is not gaining a broad range of experiences and would like to move to a Firm where their exposure will be varied and challenging. You will be joining a Practice with a great reputation in the Adelaide market and one offering a fun working environment where enjoyment of work is a major part of their mission. CA/CPA qualifications will be highly regarded.
