Full job description

Your new company

A multinational, Australian based freight forwarder with a global network, offering logistics solutions across all facets of the supply chain. You will join the tight-knit operations team and apply previous experience within the air freight industry to hit the ground running.

Your new role

As a member of the well-established operations team, you will use your previous experience to hit the ground running. Your daily duties will include:

- Registering air freight jobs;
- Accurately lodging necessary paperwork;
- Communicating and coordinating with airlines and providers regarding arriving cargo;
- Completing, editing and updating relevant certification using Cargowise;
- Multitasking and planning to minimise potential delays;
- Ensuring the cartage team are promptly informed to permit the immediate delivery of cargoes post-clearance.

What you'll need to succeed

- Previous experience within freight forwarding.
- Previous exposure to international air freight highly desirable.
- Knowledge of sea freight operations a bonus.
- Willingness to learn and a positive attitude.
- Experience using Cargowise and ICS preferred.
- Understanding of Australian import legislation.

What you'll get in return

A brilliant career opportunity within freight forwarding where you will work in a mentoring and supportive environment within a collaborative operational team. Additionally, you'll receive a highly competitive salary and other benefits.

What you need to do now
