Full job description

The opportunity now exists for a Shift Reliability Technician (Electrical Fitter) to join the team on a Permanent basis at Toohey's Brewery in Lidcombe, NSW.

The Role:

- Preventative and corrective maintenance
- Work on a range of our machinery across packaging and brewing
- Respond to any breakdowns with urgency

Your Experience:

- Cert 3 Electrical Engineering / Electrical Fitting
- Industrial experience will be highly regarded
- Experience of working as a Fitter in manufacturing is also highly desirable
- Alternatively, we can see that people from a construction background could add value to the team

At Lion, we choose to be a leader in driving inclusion, diversity and gender parity. We have an ambitious goal to reach at least 40% representation of both men and women in all teams in all areas of the business. Are you hesitating to apply because you don't think you meet all of the criteria?

If you believe you are aligned with our values at Lion, we'd encourage you to still click on that apply button so we can explore your unique skill set and the value you could add to one of our teams.
