Full job description

Your new company

Our client is a strong mid-tier, full service law firm with offices in QLD, NSW and VIC. The firm's key practice areas include corporate and commercial, property, private clients, litigation and dispute resolution and employment, safety and migration. The firm has a great reputation in the market for delivering commercial outcomes for clients and having a collegial firm culture.

Your new role

Working within a high performing team, you will be provided with exposure across a range of areas of corporate and commercial law including mergers and acquisitions, contracting, governance and structuring, intellectual property and information technology. You will assist in drafting and reviewing contracts, preparing key documents and reports, undertaking research and assisting clients to comply with their legal obligations.

What you'll need to succeed

In order to be considered for this unique opportunity, you will come with the following experience:

- admitted as a Lawyer in Australia with a 1 - 2 years' PAE
- ideally have prior experience practising in corporate and commercial law but not essential for the right candidate.

- outstanding attention to detail;
- excellent written and verbal communication skills;
- good analytical skills and big picture / lateral thinking ability;
- exceptional organisational skills;
- an interest in commercial law;
- an open mind and willingness to give things a go

What you'll get in return

In return you will receive opportunity to work in a firm that invests heavily in their staff, promoting progression and offers flexible work practices and a down to earth, open culture.
