Full job description

Help build ground truth of top 3 results by a given search query and the geolocation where the query is originated. Help us improve search results!

We're looking for Search Engine Evaluators who have a good sense of understanding of the user intention as represented by the query and determine how well or how completely the result satisfies the user's need.

- Long term project commitment
- Flexible hours that fit your schedule
- No cap on weekly hours (as tasks are available) - maximize your earnings!

Requirements

- 10-15 minimum per week (as tasks are available)
- Desktop or Laptop only, no mobile phone or tablet
- MAC OS preferred, but not required
- English skills
