Full job description

Your new company

Our client is a specialised boutique experienced provider of strata law advice, insurance law, commercial dispute resolution/litigation, building & construction law and insolvency law. The firm is comprised of a close knit friendly and supportive team.

Your new role

Sitting within their high performing Litigation Team you will :

- have day to day carriage of a broad range of litigation matters including commercial disputes, contract disputes, shareholder disputes, regulatory examinations, investigations and other proceedings
- appear in the Supreme Court of New South Wales and the Federal Court of Australia in proceedings of various kinds, both with and without counsel as required
- liaise with and advise clients regarding their rights, obligations, alternatives and prospects
- prepare pleadings, motions, affidavit evidence, subpoenas, notices to produce and other court documents
- brief, confer with and instruct counsel
- Have the opportunity to work across and gain experience in different practice areas

What you'll need to succeed

In order to be considered for the role you will have the following experience:

- Hold a current Australian practising certificate
- Ideally a minimum 4 years' PQE in litigation, is flexible on this for the right candidate. Construction or Strata litigation is highly desirable
- Ability to be adaptable and assist in different practice areas
- Excellent communication skills and attention to detail
- Understand and appreciate the importance of confidentiality in areas of particular commercial and client sensitivity

What you'll get in return

In return you will receive an opportunity to join a supportive and sociable environment, be involved in challenging and varied work that comes with an attractive remuneration. The firm offers excellent mentorship and progression opportunities.
