Our client is a long established, family owned multi-franchised new car dealership located in the New England area of NSW. They are seeking to employ a fully experienced and capable Service Manager to take control of their prestige brand service operation. The service department operates Monday to Friday only, so no Saturday work is required. The town offers all modern facilities, including educational, recreational, sporting, medical, shopping and educational.

Applicants for this position must have solid current or recent stable experience as a franchised dealership service manager. You will have strong management, financial and people-handling skills, and be personally motivated by both profitability and customer satisfaction. You will understand warranty requirements and be able to motivate your staff to achieve their potential.

Salary is envisaged to consist of a retainer around $85k, super and commission structure.
