Full job description

We are offering a part time casual job as a furniture delivery assistant. If you enjoy delivering new furniture into peoples homes, then this job is for you. We are a professional delivery logistics company that moves furniture for some of the most well known furniture brands in Australia. The successful applicant needs to be strong and sure footed, motivated to get the job done in a very professional manner and polite and well presented for our customers. This is a casual job at this time ranging between 3-6 days(25-38 HRS) a week including Saturdays, becoming more permanent as this covid world comes to a close. The job is loading and unloading a large truck and travelling around Melbourne with the driver on a daily basis.
