Full job description

Accru Harris Orchard is a highly respected accountancy firm which has been in operation for over 50 years. Based in Dulwich and McLaren Vale, they have a team of over 60 professionals working with a diverse client base including SME business, government departments, investors, and other accounting firms.

They not only provide traditional accounting services but specialise in partnering with clients to help build great businesses.

Due to unprecedented growth, an opportunity has become available for a Senior Accountant to join this progressive firm.

Reporting to the Senior Manager, the Senior Accountant is primarily responsible for project and complex compliance work through the production of accurate financial statements and tax returns. Project work will typically include forecasts and budget preparation, regular financial and KPI reporting. You will also be responsible to reviewing compliance work and working collaboratively with your peers. The ability to develop trusted and enduring relationships with clients is essential. You will require an accounting related degree and attained or working towards a CA or CPA qualification together with high level technical knowledge with over 5 years' experience in practice. It is expected that you have exceptional organisational and time management skills, can meet agreed deadlines, and possess a high attention to detail.
