A career in care and support

The demand for quality in-home and community care is rapidly growing, and our teams are growing to meet it! We're now seeking a Residential Support Worker to join our experienced and down-to earth team in Bonbeach. Each day will look a little different, but your key responsibilities will likely include:

- Providing aid and support in common daily activities around the home
- Providing aid and support with hygiene and personal care
- Assistance, support, and chaperoning activities outside the home environment which may include transportation of your client
- Assisting with medication compliance which may include the dispensation of prescription medication
- Meal assistance which may include meal preparation
- Working collaboratively with other support staff
- A willingness to work around pets - 2 cats onsite

Join our great team. Be supported to learn and grow. Get rewarded along the way. Make a difference in the community.

What you'll bring

We're looking for caring, people focused individuals who will brighten our client's days and make a positive impact on their lives. To do well in this role, you will/may have:

- A certificate III (or higher) in Disability Care, Home & Community Care, Aged Care or Individual Support
- Knowledge and/or experience in Support Work or similar environment
- National police check

- Employee working with children check
- Current first aid and CPR certificates
- Manual handling
- Experience in complex bowel care

A career with Claro

Whether you're currently studying in the field, interested in exploring a new career, or an experienced worker - you can make a real difference with us.

Our purpose is simple: to provide high quality care and support for all Australians across our community and enable people to shine!

From our clients to our own teams, people are at the heart of our business. As part of our Claro team you will make a real impact, gain access to leading professional training and development, and enjoy flexibility that works for you.

Previously known as Australian Home Care, Accommodation and Care Solutions, Comrec, Nextt and Orion Services, our team of 4,500 strong have combined the best of what we had to become Claro – offering our clients greater choice and a brighter future.

A career you can choose

If you're passionate about care and making a difference in people's lives, are aligned with our values, and want to work in a business that is growing, and that values and rewards its people, we'd love to hear from you.
