Full job description

Our client is currently looking to expand their reach and bring on fresh new talent. Challenge yourself today!

Our client is a progressive sales and marketing company who are looking for energetic individuals with a background in sales/customer service. Their culture has been described as focused, fun & supportive - if you want to be part of this they are ready to have you hit the ground running.

Should you be successful, you'll be employed as a sales consultant – you'll see yourself engaging with customers from a number of demographics and delivering tailor-made presentations with the intention to generate revenue for some of Australia's most respected organisations.

They make it their mission to help improve communities while creating a life of purpose and passion for all of our people – it's not about your previous experience, it's more important to us that we find people who align with our values, outgoing personality and inspire us every day.

About You:

- Approachable & Friendly
- Great First Impression
- Good Verbal Communication
- Driven to Succeed
- 3+ Years in a Customer Focused Role

Responsibilities:

- Create positive brand awareness
- Generate revenue through customer acquisition
- Participate in skill development workshops
- Objection Handling

So, what are the perks?
