Full job description

Maples Early Learning situated in Mernda would like to welcome casual co-educators to join the team! This position would ideally suit someone who is looking to gain full time employment in the future at Maples Early Learning or enjoys the flexibility of casual work and available throughout the week.

How can you support us:

- To be able to accept shifts the same morning to cover sickness.
- You will have the opportunity once you establish yourself to be given shifts in advance.
- You will be expected to support the team in the daily running of the room.
- Show initiative and also follow direction.
- Be able to communicate with families and children.

Maples Early Learning:

At Maples Early Learning we are influenced by the Reggio Emilia Philosophy and aim to be a step ahead with our educational programs. Our educators are deeply inspired by the approach and our service philosophy and believe that children have the right too:

- Have the ability to engage freely between the indoor and outdoor environments
- The right to explore an environment that is presented with respect and is aesthetically pleasing
- Explore and learn through a play-based approach
- Explore their learning through the 100 languages of children
- Explore the environment through investigation with the natural world

We would like to welcome Educators who:

- Have a positive attitude with the children, families & educators
- Are passionate about providing quality learning environments for children
- Are committed/ well presented and professional
- Have a strong understanding of the EYLF and NQS

Key requirements:

- Certificate III in Children's Services / Diploma in Children's Services or equivalent
- First Aid, Asthma and Anaphylaxis training
- Working with children check
- Strong understanding of the Early Years Framework and National Quality Standards

We value our employees, offer career development and opportunities for ongoing shifts and the chance to be considered for permanent positions when they are available at our centre.

We look forward to hearing from you and welcoming you to join our Maples Family.
